PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hi Everyone

It's been a relatively quiet month but the time has gone quickly and Wednesday is our meeting night once again!

At this month's meeting we should discuss the possibility of taking our cars for a drive in May ( there is no meeting in April) - does anyone have any suggestions for an outing? Some scenery and a place where we can park our cars and enjoy a picnic lunch would be good. Also a morning tea stop.

A P76 run is a good excuse to dust the cobwebs off and clean the spark plugs! Please talk to Troy or myself if you have any ideas.

As Easter is fast approaching - and Anzac Day - two long weekends, dont forget about double demerit points and safe driving! Enjoy the holiday breaks.

Finally -

Congratulations to Troy and Julie who welcomed little Beau Robbie Green into the world in late February - a perfect little boy - and our newest member of the P76 Club - on behalf of the Club I would like to congratulate them and wish them all the best as they begin life as a family. Also congratulations are due to the proud P76 grandparents - Joe and Sue!

All the best

Peter O'Brien
