NATIONAL MOTORING HERITAGE DAY 2014

MEETING POINT

NATIONAL MOTORING HERITAGE DAY

POSH WEEKEND

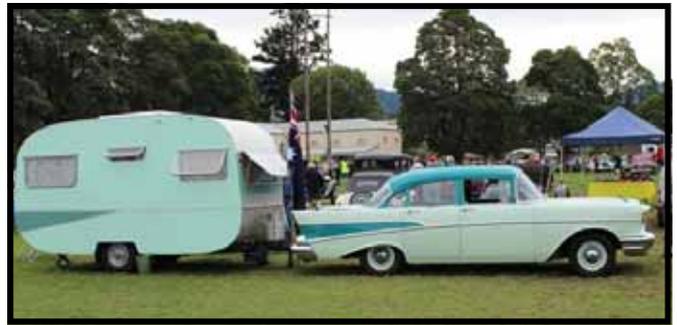

This year we decided to celebrate this day by joining up with the Classic Car Club Illawarra (Holden's) for a run to the "Posh Weekend" that was organised by the Shoalhaven Historic Vehicle Club at the Berry Showground.

We left Sydney at about 8:15am and met up with the Illawarra Club at Macca's Wollongong Northgate at about 9:00am. I was pleased to once again catch up with their president, Bill Huuskes and his son Todd, whom I have not seen for a few years. Later in the day we also caught up with John and Lynelle Titcume.

When we arrived at the showground at about 10:00am it was just about full of cars we were lucky to get a parking spot at the edge of the grounds. The host club theme was a "Posh Weekend" and was encouraging visitors to stay for Saturday and Sunday.

The club organised prizes and trophies for all classes of vehicles. (We did not enter) The Berry Silver Band attended, and their music was fantastic. There was numerous trade stalls and many food stalls. There was also a stall that displayed live Dingos from the Bargo Dingo Sanctuary.

There was a display of racing cars, mowers and working vintage machinery, also

Amongst the veteran, vintage and classic cars right in the centre of the showground was a great vehicle, it was a look alike of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang which was hand built from the ground up by Mike Ellard. He built this magnificent machine in 2 years. It is based on a rodeo chassis and all metal work fabricated by Mike in his own workshop. Motor and Gearbox from a Commodore and front headlights made from saucepans and frypans and brass plated. He also hand crafted all of the wonderful woodwork. The vintage snake horn came from the USA and badges from the UK. He has done a magnificent job of perfecting the wings, it looks like it could fly.

Well we all had a great day. Many thanks to Bill Huuskes and the Illawarra Club for inviting us to join them for the day. Congratulations to the Shoalhaven Historic Vehicle for organising such a successful event. I was told there was close to 1000 cars or more on display. We must go to this event next year.
