President's Report—Paul Patten

Hello everyone, AGM, Memberships, HVS CVS

I hope everyone is well and keeping safe and welcome to The Leyland Post issue No 99 . It has been a little while since our previous magazine, however we again have had few outings and events to report on. Our general meetings have continued and our new venue The Hills Club at Baulkham Hills, has proved to be more than adequate for our needs although we are still attempting to get the Zoom side of the meeting working at an acceptable level.

We are again at the start of a new financial year and memberships are due. This is particularly important to any members with conditionally registered vehicles, either Historic (HVS) or Classic (CVS) registration as your registration is conditional on you being a 'financial' member of the club. If you fall into one of these categories and haven't paid your membership renewal by June 30th, please don't use your car until you renew, as the registration (incl CTP) will be invalid opening you up to fines or worse.

On the list of important notes, please remember that our AGM is just around the corner, at our meeting on August 9th. I know it seems like a recurring theme, and I get concerned that the more we mention it, the smaller the impact it is likely to be but we are in need of some fresh help within the committee. Some of the current committee have been doing multiple jobs for some time now, so I would encourage anyone who thinks they can take some of the load, even in an 'assistant' type role, it would be very welcome. It's past time for some of our members to step up and at least give some assistance or backup, the alternative is that the current committee will lose interest as well.

As always, please stay and travel safe, hope to catch up with you soon,

Paul Patten

Parkes & Forbes Weekend

The Parkes Information Centre and Museum was interesting and helpful.

McFeeters Museum (below) is a stand-out and the HARS Aviation Museum is also very interesting.

And of course there was The Dish AND we had great company along the way – thanks everyone for coming with us to get an idea of what we can do for the big 50th Anniversary and P76 Nationals next Easter.

The Day of the Red Six

Now Bathurst time was here again, excitement filled the air, the brave men and their mighty machines all congregated there. Brock and Bond, Moffat and Morris and Gossy too they say, these were just a few of the mighty, who would gamble with death that day.

Now men like these they had no fear, for they could give anyone curry, but when they looked at the entry list, they all did start to worry. For there was a car in the field, a car of unknown potential, an honest entry this was indeed, it had no Ford differential.

St George – Port Hacking Auto Club had entered this bag of tricks, Byers and Molesworth were the men ordained, to pilot the Red Marina Six.

A professional entry this was to be, the car was shod with slicks, the drivers were professional too, or were they a pair of hicks? Some said money, some said fame, some said they did it for kicks, but who's to know, who's to care, when de-th around you licks.

The flag went down and Neil was driving, as the race began to unfold, now he was audacious and daring, and cunning too I'm told. Around the torturous track he sped, he was a sight to behold, but was it just the wet weather that made his feet go cold. For now he made one of his rare mistakes, at the end of pit straight he forgot to use his brakes, but a trip down the escape road in his stride he takes. For all he got was a bad case of the shakes.

And then it was Peter who took the wheel, his face a twisted grin, but Oh the punishment he gave that car, it was a crying sin, through 360° he did rotate, his face now gaunt and thin, but harder now he strove to drive, he knew he had to win.

Through the water the "Red Six" cut, just like a sharks fin, but all for naught, 'cause his efforts ended in another bloody great spin.

Now when the race had ended and Bartlett and Goss had won, Neil's and Peter's great deeds, they had all been done.

Though not noticeable as one of the flyers, no one could deny they were a pair of tryers. And all in all there is nothing to scoff at, for did they not beat old Allan Moffat.
