PRESIDENT'S RAMBLINGS

It's that time of the year again, the silly season, where everything has to be completed for the end of the year. The Christmas breakups and similar are upon us and Christmas card have to be sent to people we hope are still living where they were last year. I guess the internet and social media has changes this process for some people but the message is the same. Merry Christmas to you and your families and have a good New Year.

We tried something different this year for the Club Christmas Dinner. As the majority of us have retired or getting close, their weekdays are free, so we tried the Christmas Lunch on a Friday which worked well with only a couple of people who would normally have been there unable to because of work commitments. The Pomegranate Café at Birdwood was the venue and they provided excellent fare. We ate inside as it was a hot day. All enjoyed their meal.

We had some discussion about where to go for Australia Day on 26th January and decided to try the Car Show at Walkers Flat on the Murray River. This is a Picnic event and should be a good day out, more info elsewhere in the magazine

We have had the pleasure of cleaning out my Mum's house as she had to move into aged care. Charity organizations are very picky about what furniture they will take and some say they will pick up but can't do it for several weeks. Makes you wonder or has OH&S caught up with them too. Most won't take electrical appliances as they have to be tested and tagged before disposal adding to their overheads. We have managed to find homes for most things through friends and family. Difficult time for Mum trying to fit a 3 bedroom home into 1 room but she is nearly organized and we know she is being looked after.

I'm still nibbling away at the car in the shed, engine bay details and sorting out the wiring loom which I have changed extensively. Drawing a schematic to refer back to for later fault finding is proving a challenge but what is life without a challenge. Certainly enhances computer skills.

Please have a safe and Happy Christmas and enjoy your New Year

.....Di and Nigel

Editors Note

Well it's been a big year starting with the Australia Day Strathalbyn Show . Then the big one Easter Nationals held here in SA at McLaren Vale. A big sigh of relief when it was over but worth it for all the words of thanks & appreciation.

For me bitter/sweet getting on with life without Geoff , a 7 week trip to UK with my sister and arriving home to a new grandchild Charlie 1 day old.

Trying to clear out the garage has been a major challenge but keeping Crystal on the road a priority and a big thanks to Di & Nigel for their ongoing support and help.

I'd like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas &

Happy New Year 2016

Regards Chris Cutting
